

THE INTREPID

- SERIES -

“Those of us who submitted or surrendered our ideas and dreams and identities to the ‘leaders’ must take back our rights, our identities, our responsibilities.” - Maya Angelou

Drawing on the timeless wisdom of the archetypes, this course is designed for a small group who are wanting to dive into deep self-exploration and are dedicated to finding and expressing their gifts in the world. With an equal blend of learning and sharing, it will take a collaborative approach with you contributing just as much as receiving. To live intrepidly is to embrace midlife and spurn living it in the meek, mangled, muffled, mediocre middle.
